

One of thousands of migrant worker families traveling to harvest crops in the San Joaquin Valley, 1935, California.

Quickening of Compassion

Card 24

A path to compassion lies in understanding that many people have met countless hardships.

Think about how your struggles may be similar to those of people who are culturally different from you. Share those similarities with people you know.

On reverse: Lange, Dorothea. *To Harvest the Crops of California
Thousands of Families Live Literally on Wheels*. 1935. Photographic Print. Miscellaneous Items in High Demand Collection. Library of Congress, Washington, D.C.

Beyond Diversity Resource Center www.beyonddiversity.org